ADVERTISING CLUB OF BUFFALO ANNOUNCES 06-07
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BUFFALO, NY, September 18, 2006 – Advertising Club of Buffalo announced its board of directors as elected by more than 250 of its members for the 2006-07 program year. Ann Hackett, president of Buffalo-based graphic design firm aHa! Designs, will return as pr co-chair for the Advertising Club of Buffalo.

The Advertising Club of Buffalo announced its board of directors as elected by more than 250 of its members. Formerly known as Brainstorm, the mission of Advertising Club of Buffalo is to promote the graphic arts and marketing communication fields in and around the City of Buffalo and the Western New York area.

“I’m excited for the opportunity this year to serve our local advertising community” says aHa! Designs’ president Ann Hackett. “I’m looking forward to bringing recognition to the Advertising Club through our local media resources and our emails and newsletters.”

Along with being pr co-chair, Ann will be designing the bi-monthly newsletter and email blasts while keeping with the design continuity of the club. She also will be updating the web site with new content on a daily basis.
